Section A - Reading comprehension.

- I. Read the passage and choose the correct answer. Marks= 5x1=5

Mrs. Gill lived next door to Nita. Every afternoon, Mrs. Gill took a walk. She said it kept her young. Nita liked to peek out when Mrs. Gill came back. Mrs. Gill was always happy after her walk. She often showed Nita something she had found, like a bright red leaf.

One afternoon, Mrs. Gill looked sad. Nita asked her what was wrong.

Mrs. Gill held up a can. "I am sad about all the trash on the street," she said. "I have never seen so much trash in this neighbourhood! What has happened?"

"Mr. Trent moved," said Nita. "He used to go out each morning and pick up trash. I often saw him on my way to school."

Mrs. Gill looked surprised. "I thought I knew everything about this neighbourhood!" she said. "But you see more than I do!"

"I wish I could do Mr. Trent's job, but my back is stiff. It's hard for me to bend over and pick things up.”

“I could do that,” said Nita.

Mrs. Gill smiled. “I will carry the trash bag! You can use my gardening gloves so your hands stay clean.”

Nita put on the gloves. She picked up pieces of paper. She picked up cans. Lots of people stopped to thank Mrs. Gill and Nita. ‘The street looked much better when Nita and Mrs. Gill were done.

“Thanks, Nita,” said Mrs. Gill. “Let’s call ourselves the clean-up team!”
